

Town Hall Meeting August 19, 2010

1. Save the Date: Westgate Orientation BBQ

- Saturday, September 4 from 5:00 – 7:00 pm
- Volunteers needed for set-up

2. Plimoth Plantation Trip

- Saturday, September 18 from 9:00 am – 5:00 pm

3. Feedback cards now available

- Westgate Comment Cards are now available for anonymous resident feedback
- Graduate Coordinators will collect feedback from the comment cards and pass it along to the appropriate audience
- Website now boasts a new “Contact Us” section for anonymous feedback
- RLA will receive feedback from the website and pass it along to the appropriate audience

4. Volunteers needed for MIT ID as Charlie Card test

- GSC announced that MIT is planning to test run having MIT IDs function as Charlie Cards
- Volunteers needed for the study (volunteers might get free transportation)
- More details coming
- Please let us (westgate-pres@mit.edu) if you are interested

5. Families 101 Orientation Event

- Saturday, September 4 from 9:00 am – 1:00 pm at the Kresge BBQs
- Volunteers needed (contact Mia White)

6. New resident question-and-answer time

- New residents in attendance can ask questions about Westgate and/or town halls

7. Open “mic” time

- Feel free to bring up concerns that need to be addressed
- Low attendance at Town Hall meetings was brought up
- Possible solutions: flyers in elevators, reminder email the day of, change the name from town hall to “community meeting” or something less official sounding
- Advertise town halls at orientation activities and new resident events

8. Raffle drawing

- Three children picked three families as raffle winners
- RFRC sent out email announcing winners